FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Hi everyone

Remembrance Day 2016

During the week our Student Representative Council sold badges representing Poppies on behalf of the Cranbourne RSL. Today we acknowledged Remembrance Day with our School Captain Joel and assistant Sophie from the senior school attending the Cranbourne Community Remembrance Day Service at the Clydesdale Square in the main street. Our students proudly participated in the ceremony and when called laid a wreath of red poppies on behalf of our school community at the Cenotaph. Just before 11:00am on this eleventh day of the eleventh month, senior students read the meaning of Remembrance Day across the school over the public address system. The Pledge of Remembrance by Rupert McCall followed the reading.

At precisely 11:00am the entire school observed one minute of silence – In Remembrance.

Further information can be found at the Australian War Memorial website.

CREATE Art Show

It has finally arrived, yes it is the CREATE Art Show, our opportunity to show case the outstanding and creative works produced by our students. This fine display will be in the school gym and open to families to view today commencing 3:30pm until 5:30pm. We are also opening the gym on Saturday 11.00-3:30pm to again show case the outstanding achievement demonstrated by our students. Please make a time to visit. I must thank Mrs Lloyd and Miss Medwin for developing the creative interests in the students and staff for assisting set up the displays. You will be proud, just as the staff and I are proud, of the student's creative talents. Make sure you see the staff portraits – something not to be missed! We look forward to seeing you there.

Kind regards Garry & Staff

Leaving your child at home alone

At some stage, most parents will wonder when it is okay to leave their children at home on their own. You'll need to use your own judgement, taking into account your own family circumstances and the age and maturity of your child.

There is no actual law that states at what age children can and cannot be left alone. But the law is clear about the responsibility of parents to look after their children. In Australia there is a legal obligation for parents to make sure their children are properly looked after. They are expected to provide their children with food, clothing, a place to live, safety and supervision. Parents can be charged with an offence if children are not provided with these things.

When a child under the age of 18 years cares for children the question of negligence could arise. As a parent you might be held responsible for the carer as well as your own children if something goes wrong. For these reasons it's better if carers are adults.

If your child is left alone without a carer, they must be old enough to take action in an emergency. They must know what to do and where to get help. It isn't fair to expect an older child to take on the full weight of responsibility that's needed to care for younger siblings. This child's lack of experience might make it difficult for them to safely and calmly care for the other children in an emergency.

Ask yourself these questions-

- How safe is our home?
- Are our ground rules clear?
- How long will I be away?
- Who'll be in charge?
